WILLIAM WORDEN

William Worden is a performer, instructor, and maker of Native American flutes, whose company Spirit Songs is dedicated to promoting native cultural music and incorporating it into a multicultural curriculum. To do this, Worden takes his flutes to student groups and teaches them to play simple songs such as Amazing Grace. His program typically includes teaching the history and development of the Native American flute, a look at the folklore and traditional uses of the instrument, and performing along with the students.
